TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF USE OF CONTRACTOR COMMERCIAL DATA PRODUCTS PURCHASED UNDER COMMERCIAL SMALLSAT DATA ACQUISITION PROGRAM, BPA# 80HQTR18A0024

These terms and conditions govern the use of Small-satellite Commercial DATA purchased through the above-referenced contract to support NASA's Earth science research and application activities, including, without limitation, satellite imagery, vector, attribute or other Commercial DATA, or other related documentation, information or content first produced by Contractor (collectively, the "COMMERCIAL DATA") and delivered to NASA pursuant to the Contract.

OWNERSHIP OF COMMERCIAL DATA:

The COMMERCIAL DATA is and will remain the exclusive property of Contractor and/or its suppliers. These terms and conditions do not grant NASA title or ownership interest, or any express or implied license rights other than those expressly set forth in these terms and conditions, with respect to the COMMERCIAL DATA or any copies of the same.

LICENSE TO COMMERCIAL DATA:

COMMERCIAL DATA may embody trade secrets or comprise commercial or financial information which is privileged or confidential. The COMMERCIAL DATA will be maintained in confidence and subject to the licensing restrictions described herein and may be disclosed and used by NASA and Related Entities (subject to the conditions relating to such Related Entities as expressed hereunder) only for Scientific Use by or on behalf of NASA. Save for in the form of Derivatives as permitted below, NASA and its Related Entities shall not publish the COMMERCIAL DATA or disclose the COMMERCIAL DATA to any third party without the express written permission of the Contractor.

For the avoidance of doubt:

1. the COMMERCIAL DATA shall not be used by NASA or its Related Entities for any Commercial Use, whether in the form of Derivatives or otherwise;
2. without limiting NASA's rights to use the COMMERCIAL DATA for Scientific Use in accordance with the terms of this EULA, the COMMERCIAL DATA shall not be used by NASA or its Related Entities for any NASA Purpose except in the form of Derivatives under this license; and
3. the COMMERCIAL DATA may be used by NASA or its Related Entities for Scientific Use and may only be published in the form of Derivatives permitted under this license. NASA or its Related Entities may not publish the COMMERCIAL DATA in any other form without the Contractor's prior written consent.

Subject to compliance with the licensing restrictions contained herein, Related Entities are allowed to share COMMERCIAL DATA with their employees, contractors, and students who are assigned to a specific task related to NASA's Scientific Use that requires access to the COMMERCIAL DATA under suitable protective conditions, such as having a policy in place to ensure such recipients of privileged or confidential information are advised of the appropriate procedures for handling of such information and treatment of restricted intellectual property needed for compliance with the terms of this EULA. Related Entities shall be subject to the same or more restrictive terms as those expressed herein.

This license allows NASA and its Related Entities to create Derivatives of the COMMERCIAL DATA as explained in further detail below.

1. For the avoidance of doubt, Derivatives shall in no way (a) disclose the COMMERCIAL DATA; (b) enable the COMMERCIAL DATA substantially to be reverse engineered or extracted from the Derivatives; or (c) be capable of use substantially as a substitute for the COMMERCIAL DATA.
2. Derivatives may be made available to the scientific community through publication in appropriate journals or other established channels of public dissemination as soon as practicable and consistent with good scientific practice. Courtesy copies of upcoming reports or publications by Related Entities shall be furnished to NASA and Contractor for informational purposes only. When possible, Related Entities should make reasonable efforts to provide these courtesy copies prior to publication.
3. Derivatives are not allowed for Commercial Use by NASA or any Related Entities.
4. NASA and Related Entities will retain rights to any Derivatives developed through the use of COMMERCIAL DATA, and may store, distribute and use Derivatives (under suitable protective conditions) for NASA Purposes.
5. Derivatives, as appropriate, must contain the following copyright notice conspicuously displayed: “© “_____ . All Rights Reserved” for the COMMERCIAL DATA, and “Includes copyrighted material of _____ . All Rights Reserved” for Derivatives. If requested, a joint citation may be used to acknowledge the investigating institution or NASA.

DEFINITIONS:

Commercial Use: A Commercial Use as used herein means any use not specifically authorized as part of Scientific Use, including but not limited to:

1. Use of the COMMERCIAL DATA for the business needs of any third person or entity, including without limitation, providing any services to any third parties;
2. Use in advertising, marketing and promotional materials and services on behalf of a customer, client, employer, employee or other non-governmental organization for purposes other than NASA Purposes;
3. Use in any materials or services for sale or for which fees or charges are paid or received (e.g., textbook supplemental materials, books, syllabi, course packs) for purposes other than NASA Purposes; and
4. Use in any books, news publication or journal for purposes (other than the use of Derivatives for Scientific Use and NASA Purposes as permitted under this license).

Related Entity: As used in this EULA, Related Entity means a contractor, subcontractor, recipient, or grantee of NASA that is subject to the same or more restrictive terms as expressed in this license and which is assigned, tasked, or contracted with to perform activities by or on behalf of NASA related to or using the COMMERCIAL DATA. Related Entities shall be restricted to those that do not compete with the Contractor in the production or sale of the same or similar COMMERCIAL DATA. The following entities (and their subsidiaries and affiliates) shall always be deemed to be competitors of the Contractor: (a) GeoOptics Inc; (b) PlanetiQ; (c) exactEarth Ltd; (d) OrbComm Inc; (e) Aireon LLC; (f) Flightradar 24; (g) Pinkfoot Ltd; (h) FlightAware; (i) FlightGlobal; and (j) GomSpace A/S. Contractor reserves the right to inform NASA in writing of any other companies whom Contractor deems to compete with the Contractor in the production or sale of the same or similar COMMERCIAL DATA.

Derivative: As used herein, a Derivative means any addition, improvement, update, modification, translation, transformation, adaptation or derivative work of or to the COMMERCIAL DATA, authored, created or developed by or on behalf of NASA or its Related Entities, including, without limitation, any reformatting of the COMMERCIAL DATA into a different format or media from which it is delivered and any addition of Commercial DATA, information or other content to the COMMERCIAL DATA provided that such Derivative shall in no way (a) disclose the COMMERCIAL DATA; (b) enable the COMMERCIAL DATA substantially to be reverse engineered or extracted from the Derivatives; or (c) be capable of use substantially as a substitute for the COMMERCIAL DATA.

Scientific Use: Scientific Use means internal use by NASA, or a NASA-initiated, NASA-funded and/or NASA-peer reviewed investigation, established through a NASA Research Announcement (NRA) or similar public notice of opportunity, and performed for the purpose of conducting experiments, evaluation, research, and/or development, including applied research under the NASA Applied Sciences Program. Scientific Use is not intended for the development of commercial products or services and is exclusive of activities sponsored by non-governmental organizations, regardless of for-profit or not-for-profit status. Except as preapproved by Contractor on a case-by-case basis, Scientific Use does not include Commercial Use.

NASA Purpose: As used herein, NASA Purpose means any activity in which NASA is a party, including cooperative agreements, and agreements pursuant to other transactional authority, including 51 U.S.C. § 20113. NASA Purpose does not include the right to have or permit others to use COMMERCIAL DATA for Commercial Use. NASA Purpose does not allow the transfer or sharing of COMMERCIAL DATA with other U.S. Government entities, foreign governments, international organizations, or any other third parties. NASA may share Derivatives with other U.S. government agencies.

DATA FIRST PRODUCED BY NASA:

Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions, any DATA first produced by or originating from NASA (“NASA DATA”) that is incorporated or aggregated into COMMERCIAL DATA (including, but not limited to GPS DATA) shall retain its character, and the U.S. Government will have unlimited rights in such NASA DATA.

DISCLAIMER:

ALL COMMERCIAL DATA IS PROVIDED "AS IS" WITHOUT ANY REPRESENTATIONS OR WARRANTIES OF ANY KIND. ALL WARRANTIES, WHETHER EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, ORAL OR WRITTEN, ARISING BY LAW OR OTHERWISE, ARE EXPRESSLY DISCLAIMED AND EXCLUDED BY CONTRACTOR, INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION ALL IMPLIED WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY, TITLE, NON-INFRINGEMENT, AND FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE. CONTRACTOR DOES NOT WARRANT THAT THE COMMERCIAL DATA WILL BE ACCURATE, CURRENT OR COMPLETE, THAT THE COMMERCIAL DATA WILL MEET NEEDS OR EXPECTATIONS OF NASA AND/OR RELATED ENTITIES, OR THAT THE OPERATION OF THE COMMERCIAL DATA WILL BE ERROR FREE OR UNINTERRUPTED. SPATIAL, SPECTRAL, AND TEMPORAL ACCURACY CANNOT BE GUARANTEED. CONTRACTOR RESERVES THE RIGHT, AT ITS SOLE DISCRETION, TO MODIFY CERTAIN IMAGE CHARACTERISTICS OF THE COMMERCIAL DATA INCLUDING, BUT NOT LIMITED TO, WATERMARKING AND DIMENSIONS.

LIMITATION OF LIABILITY:

IN NO EVENT WILL CONTRACTOR OR ITS SUPPLIERS BE LIABLE FOR ANY INCIDENTAL, CONSEQUENTIAL, SPECIAL, EXEMPLARY, OR INDIRECT DAMAGES (INCLUDING LOST PROFITS OR LOST COMMERCIAL DATA) ARISING FROM, OR RELATING TO, THIS END USER LICENSE AGREEMENT OR THE COMMERCIAL DATA, EVEN IF CONTRACTOR OR ITS SUPPLIERS HAVE BEEN ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGES.

EXPORT CONTROL:

The Parties will comply with all applicable laws, rules and regulations, including but not limited to export control regulations.

PRECEDENCE:

In the event of any conflict between the terms of this license and the Contract, the terms of this license shall prevail.
